The castle-front of the former Livonian Order Castle in the historical centre of Sigulda now houses a creative quarter, bringing together craftsmen who not only work there, but also hold master classes to visitors of the city. Here you can enjoy culture, delve into history and have a delicious meal!

LIVE SILVER MUSEUM

The exhibition of the museum was created by the jeweller, artist and philosopher Oļegs Auzers. Visitors can discover the background of the creation of each unique work of art, learn about the various properties of silver by going on a guided tour, as well as participate in a silver water tasting.

PAPER ART WORKSHOP "VIKTOR'S LETTERS"

The creative touch of the artist Zinaida Ceske brings to life unique and romantic works of art made from hand-made paper – snow-white envelopes, cards decorated with flowers picked in the ancient River Gauja valley, as well as gorgeous jewellery that makes for a great gift. All works are made from recyclable paper.

BALTU ROTAS

A family business presenting the rich heritage of ancient Baltic jewellery, which never ceases to amaze with its shapes, ornaments and stories. Its unique message is passed on by both making exact copies of ancient jewellery and using the ancient signs and symbols in modern design jewellery. The ring that was used in the making of the movie "The Pagan King" is also on display here.
